

Grotefeld Hoffmann

Press Release

March 8, 2024 - Grotefeld Hoffmann is pleased to announce the expansion of our law firm to Honolulu, Hawaii. Grotefeld Hoffmann brings its rich experience in the handling of catastrophic loss and mass tort litigation to our new location at 733 Bishop Street, Suite 2070, Honolulu, Hawaii. Our Honolulu office will be managed by Vincent Raboteau.

Mr. Raboteau grew up on O‘ahu and is licensed to practice law in the State of Hawai‘i and the State of Washington. Before earning his Bachelor of Arts Degree in American Studies from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, he spent ten years serving in the United States Air Force and Hawai‘i Air National Guard as a tactical aircraft mechanic on F-15 fighter jets. After graduating from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 2015, Mr. Raboteau worked as an associate for the firm’s Portland office where he focused on large loss property subrogation, construction defect, and product liability matters.

Mr. Raboteau moved back home to Hawai‘i in 2018 and worked as a staff attorney for Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation (NHLC) where he focused his advocacy handling complex litigation related to Native Hawaiian rights law. Mr. Raboteau then went on to practice family law where he represented clients in contentious divorce proceedings involving child custody disputes, complicated property division, and domestic violence. Most recently, Mr. Raboteau returned to subrogation when he rejoined Grotefeld Hoffmann to open its Honolulu office.
